

APRIL 11TH 2019 WORLD PARKINSON'S DAY AT UBC

Promoting Brain Wellness through Music and Art

Join us Thursday, April 11th for Parkinson's awareness at the Centre for Brain Health at UBC!

There will be opportunities to purchase art made by individuals with Parkinson's disease, create paintings, buy baked goods, listen to music and learn more about the disease!

A raffle of some of the art as well as tickets to an art class for those with Parkinson's will be held at the end of the event.
